FINAL ORDER

THIS CAUSE is before me for a final order concerning the Department's revocation of respondents' foster care license. The recommended order concludes the Department appropriately revoked respondents' license because [REDACTED] attempted to conceal that fact. Neither party filed exceptions to the recommended order.

The recommended order is approved and adopted. Accordingly, respondents' foster care license is REVOKED.

DONE AND ORDERED this 19th day of June, 2012.

M. New Lister for
David E. Wilkins, Secretary

<sup>1</sup> The Department initially incorrectly styled this case with T. S. and R. S. as petitioners. The Department is the petitioner in this proceeding because it is imposing a sanction (revocation) against the foster care license held by T. S. and R. S. rule 28-106.2015, F.A.C.
